

Long Term Plans for Towns Board Member Biography

Chief Superintendent Anthony Tagg, West Midlands Police

My career with West Midlands Police started in 2001, and I have fulfilled uniformed roles in Birmingham and Detective roles with local, force and regional remits. I currently hold the rank of Chief Superintendent and I am the Commander for Dudley Local Policing Area. As such I am responsible for policing across the Borough. I am currently the force lead for Offender Management and the force and regional lead for Disaster Victim Identification. I hold a BA (Hons) degree in Archaeology and a Post Graduate Certificate in Coaching and Mentoring.
